

Hinged tortoise

Hinged tortoise

Hinged tortoises spend the summer eating and breeding, but in winter they become dormant and hibernate in burrows. Their shell is hinged and can close, like a door, to protect the back part of the tortoise.

